

Biography

Rick Reuther

When Rick Reuther begins to sing, heads turn! Sounds like Sinatra! Sounds like Bennett! These comparisons alone, while frequent, do not begin to capture the essence of Rick's stage presence and warmth when entertaining an audience of fans. From tender ballads to swinging grooves, this is a singer in command of his craft.

Born and raised primarily in Michigan, Rick began performing music at an early age and in addition to singing, has worked professionally as a composer, guitarist, actor and voice-over artist.

After graduating from Michigan State University, Rick performed in clubs, hotels and resorts throughout the Midwest and along the East Coast. Two years in Los Angeles performing with the Astrid Cowan Trio preceded his return to Michigan and then Grand Rapids. Acting stints on Unsolved Mysteries, as well as in a host of local and national commercials followed. Currently, Rick performs regularly with the Tom Hagen Trio, as part of the acoustic band "We Know Jack", as a solo guitarist / vocalist, as featured vocalist in the acclaimed Sinatra in Vegas Tribute show and with singer/dancer Mary Rademacher in their show "Steppin Out". Rick has eight albums in release, the most recent of which, "Mud in Your Eye", is a well-received collection of vocal standards.

Rick has been a featured performer with:
